

WHICH HEALTH REFORM PROCESS DO YOU PREFER?

“Insanity: doing the same thing over and over again and expecting different results.” —Albert Einstein

INSANITY

SANITY

Glorify ourselves

Define the problem

Assure status quo to Medicare and public employees

Insist on all-inclusiveness

Process focused

Performance focused

Appoint commissions, committees, focus groups

Request competing proposals

Negotiate and compromise

Vet, compare and contrast

Talk big, act small

Encourage innovation

Attack the “guilty parties”

Reposition the interests and incentives

Create new bureaucracy

Select “best” alternative(s)

Dependency / control

Self-reliance / determination

Obscure accountability

Test, evaluate, adjust

Tell people what they get

Win customers with what they want

Perpetuate mediocrity

Succeed or shut down

Change governors: Start over

Move on to solving other problems
